Sanctuary, 11:00 a.m.

The Words of Preparation

As soon as the Spirit came upon the church, Satan launched a ferocious counter-attack. Pentecost was followed by persecution. Satan's strategy was carefully developed. He attacked on three fronts: 1) physical violence, 2) moral corruption or compromise, and 3) distraction...

The Introit

An American Hymn

Cecil Effinger

Randie Lewis, soloist

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain, for purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain! America! America! God shed His grace on thee, and crown thy good with brotherhood, from sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for pilgrim feet, whose stern impassioned stress a thoroughfare for freedom beat across the wilderness. America! America! God mend thine every flaw. Confirm thy soul in self-control, thy liberty in law.

O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife, who more than self their country loved, and mercy more than life. America! America! May God thy gold refine, till all success be nobleness and every gain divine.

(Congregation stands and joins on the final stanza)

O beautiful for patriot dream that sees beyond the years, thine alabaster cities gleam undimmed by human tears. America! America! God shed His grace on thee, and crown thy good with brotherhood, from sea to shining sea.

The First Reading Ezekiel 37:1-14

The power of the Lord was upon me and I was carried away by the Spirit of the Lord to a valley full of old, dry bones that were scattered everywhere across the ground. He led me around among them, and then he said to me: "Son of dust, can these bones become people again?" I replied, "Lord, you alone know the answer to that."

Then he told me to speak to the bones and say: "O dry bones, listen to the words of God, for the Lord God says, 'See! I am going to make you live and breathe again! I will replace the flesh and muscles on you and cover you with skin. I will put breath into you, and you shall live and know I am the Lord.'"

So I spoke these words from God, just as he told me to; and suddenly there was a rattling noise from all across the valley, and the bones of each body came together and attached to each other as they used to be.

Then, as I watched, the muscles and flesh formed over the bones, and skin covered them, but the bodies had no breath. Then he told me to call to the wind and say: “The Lord God says: Come from the four winds, O Spirit, and breathe upon these slain bodies, that they may live again.”

So I spoke to the winds as he commanded me, and the bodies began breathing; they lived and stood up—a very great army.

Then he told me what the vision meant: “These bones,” he said, “represent all the people of Israel. They say: ‘We have become a heap of dried-out bones—all hope is gone.’”

But tell them, ‘The Lord God says: My people, I will open your graves of exile and cause you to rise again and return to the land of Israel. And, then at last, O my people, you will know I am the Lord. I will put my Spirit into you, and you shall live and return home again to your own land. Then you will know that I, the Lord, have done just what I promised you.’”

The Preparation for Confession

Rev. Dan Hutchinson

Come down, O Love Divine, seek out this soul of mine and visit it —with your own ardor glowing!

+ + +

O Comforter, draw near, within my heart appear, and kindle it,
Your holy flame bestowing!

Let holy charity my outward vesture be, and lowliness become my inner clothing;

true lowliness of heart which takes the humbler part,
and for its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

And so the yearning strong with which the soul will long shall far outpace the power of human telling;

+ + +

For none can guess God’s grace, till love creates a place wherein the Holy Spirit makes a dwelling.

The Prayer of Confession

Lord Jesus, read our hearts this morning and hear our confession: each of us and all of us are “prone to wander, prone to leave the Lord we love.” We are reluctant to own this, preferring to simply chase the life that sits before us. We rarely find ourselves weeping over, and loathing, our shortcomings.

Forgive us, dear Christ, for minimizing these realities. By the power of your Holy Spirit, transform us into faithful and joyful disciples.
Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayers... (in silence)

The Invitation to Embrace Christ’s Forgiveness

Friends, embrace this good news with all of your hearts: in Jesus Christ there is forgiveness —for all who call upon His name!
Alleluia, Amen!

◆ The Response 313 Come Down, O Love Divine DOWN AMPNEY

◆ Affirmation of Faith The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us and for our salvation He came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate; He suffered death and was buried. On the third day He rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

God is Our Refuge

Allen Pote

God is our refuge and strength; a present help in time of trouble. Though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea, though the waters roar and foam, we will not fear. Come and behold the work of the Lord, the awesome acts of God. He is in the midst of his people, in all the earth. He is the Word, we are his hands, He will lead us. He is the air, we are his song, we will celebrate his presence all the day long. Refrain. He is the rain, we are the stones, He will cleanse us. He is the air, we are his song, we will celebrate his presence all the day long. Refrain. Psalm 46
