Second Sunday of Advent

Stephenson Hall, 11:00 a.m.

Words of Preparation

Surely the entire divinely arranged plan of our Redeemer's [coming] in the flesh is the reconciliation of the world—it was for this purpose that he became incarnate, for this he suffered, for this he was raised from the dead—that he might lead us, who had incurred God's anger by sinning, back to God's peace by his act of reconciliation. Hence he was rightly given the name "Father of the world to come" and "Prince of peace".

Prelude

Beneath the Night Sky

Walking beneath the night sky, looking up at endless stars, wondering how we can see that far and what they say about eternity. Long ago, beneath the night sky, the wise men from afar followed one bright leading star, believing there's more to this story.

And when I think of all the gifts I could give to you; I hope I give hope, I hope I give joy. But I want to tell you only what I know to be true; I know there is love, I know there is life.

Shepherds beneath the night sky looking up at endless stars, an angel choir appeared from afar, saying "Peace, goodwill to all. For unto you is born this day, a Savior who is Christ the King, the light of life and truth He brings, and the hope of eternity." Refrain

If there is love, and if there is life, then light breaks through the night. And if love is alive and life has a name; His name is Jesus.

In the mystery of the moment, is the darkness what is true, or is light shining down on me and you saying there's more to this story.

Songs of Praise

Of the Father's Love Begotten

Of the Father's Love Begotten of the Father's love begotten, ere the worlds began to be, He is Alpha and Omega, He the source, the ending He, of the things that are, that have been, and that future years shall see, evermore and evermore.

O ye heights of heaven adore Him; angel hosts, His praises sing; powers, dominions, bow before him, and extol our God and King; let no tongue on Earth be silent, every voice in concert ring, evermore and evermore.

Christ, to Thee with God the Father, and, O Holy Ghost, to Thee, hymn and chant and high thanksgiving and unwearied praises be: honor, glory, and dominion, and eternal victory, evermore and evermore.

Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus

Come, Thou long-expected Jesus, born to set Thy people free; from our fears and sins release us, let us find our rest in Thee. Israel's Strength and Consolation, Hope of all the earth Thou art; Dear Desire of every nation, Joy of every longing heart!

Born Thy people to deliver, born a child and yet a King, born to reign in us forever, now Thy gracious kingdom bring. By Thine own eternal Spirit rule in all our hearts alone; by Thine all-sufficient merit, raise us to Thy glorious throne!

Joy to those who long to see You, Dayspring from on high, appear; come, O promised Shoot of Jesse, of your birth we long to hear. O'er the hills come voices ringing –news, glad tidings of a birth: "Go to him, your praises bringing: Christ the Lord is come to earth!

Lighting the Advent Candle Peace (2)

Braden and Katie Evans

We gather around the advent wreath knowing that the only hope for our world is coming from outside of it; that the fires of hope are lit from a divine, transcendent flame. And in quiet confidence this hope gives rise to the promise of peace. Paul writes this about hope and peace to the church in Rome: “May the God of hope fill you with all peace in believing, so that by the power of the spirit you may abound in hope.”

We receive the fire of hope in the gospel of Jesus Christ, and naturally it ignites the flame of peace. From the promise of the incarnation these twin stars of hope and peace shine out as beacons to those in the darkness of sin and death. Amid the storms that rage and the shadows that pursue, there are these lights shining steadfast so that we cannot lose the way—I am the way, says Jesus, and only in him are true hope and peace to be found. Join me now in the Prayer given us in Paul’s letter to the saints in Rome:

“Almighty God of hope, fill us now with the hope that you give us in your son, Jesus Christ, and let us take hold of the other-worldly peace on offer through Him. Grant that by these gifts we might abound in hope and peace before a fearful and disquieted world; now, forever, and always. Amen.”

Prayer of Confession We Confess

Almighty God, we confess our sin; what we have done, what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

Have mercy. Have mercy on us. Have mercy. Have mercy on us.

Most gracious God, we have lost our way. Like wandering sheep, we have gone astray. We're truly sorry and we turn back. Now, for the sake of Your Son Jesus Christ...

Have mercy. Have mercy on us. Have mercy. Have mercy on us.

Assurance of Pardon

Friends, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. So hear and believe the good news that in Jesus Christ there is forgiveness for all who call upon Him. Alleluia! Amen!

Response of Gratitude We Confess (Reprise)

As far as the East is from the West, so far have you removed our sinfulness. You carried our guilt and shame upon yourself; we are forgiven, forgiven. We are forgiven, forgiven.

Affirmation of Faith The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. AMEN.

Passing of the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you! And also with you!

Blessing of the Young Disciples

Offering Christ is Lower Still

Breathe in, reach out, touch the hem of your garment now. Help me, heal me; my mind, my body, and soul.

Let the king descend, living word made flesh. Lift this heavy heart to your throne, o God. In his wounds I find room for all of mine. When from grace I fell, Christ was lower still.

Humbly, lowly, Jesus waits in the valley. My Savior suffers with me; with Him, I'll rise again.

Let the king descend, living word made flesh. Lift this heavy heart to your throne, o God. In his wounds I find room for all of mine. When from grace I fell, Christ was lower. 'Til the earth is filled, Christ is lower still.

We lift it all up to you Lord. We lift our heads, we lift our hands. We lift it all up to you Lord. We lift our dreams, we lift our plans. We lift it all up to you Lord. We lift our sorrow and our pain. We lift it all up to you Lord. We cast our cares on you again. We lift it all up to you Lord. Refrain

Song of Sending

Joy to The World

Joy to the world! The Lord is come: let earth receive her King; let every heart prepare Him room, and heaven and nature sing, and heaven and nature sing, and heaven and heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the world! The Savior reigns: let us our songs employ; while fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains repeat the sounding joy, repeat the sounding joy, repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

No more let sins and sorrows grow, nor thorns infest the ground; He comes to make His blessings flow far as the curse is found, far as the curse is found, far as, far as the curse is found.

He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of His righteousness, and wonders of His love, and wonders of His love, and wonders, wonders of His love!
