

Third Sunday of Eastertide

April 19, 2026

11 a.m. worship, Sanctuary

First Presbyterian Church of Tulsa

Called to make fully devoted followers of Christ, inwardly strong and outwardly focused.

Rejoice in the Lord!

The Words of Preparation

Yet, even here, there is an element of danger. The presence of God can become a credal formula rather than a living reality. Theoretically, we know that He is with us; experimentally, we forget Him and, lacking a vivid sense of His presence, we fall into sin and slackness which would surely not mar our lives if we were sharply conscious of the Lord alongside us. Hence we have a real need to know that the God of peace is with us.

J. A. Motyer, The Message of Philipians

THE WELCOME

Rev. Dan Hutchinson

Please sign, pass, and return the blue friendship register. Visitors, please fill out a Get Connected card from the pew back and drop it in the offering plate to receive our E-News updates, and fellowship opportunities.

THE INTROIT

His Eye Is On The Sparrow

Charles Gabriel, arr. Mark Hayes

Susan Reid, soloist

Why should I feel discouraged, why should the shadows come? Why should my heart be lonely and long for Heaven and home, when Jesus is my portion? My constant friend is He; His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me. I sing because I'm happy, I sing because I'm free, for His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me. "Let not your heart be troubled," His tender word I hear; and resting on His goodness, I lose my doubt and fear. Though by the path He leadeth but one step I may see; His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me. Refrain.

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Colossians 1:15-20

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

For by Him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through Him and for Him.

And He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together.

And He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything He might be preeminent.

For in Him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell,

It is well with my soul; it is well, it is well with my soul.

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come, let this blest assurance control: that Christ has regarded my helpless estate, and has shed His own blood for my soul. Refrain

My sin— O the bliss of this glorious thought! My sin, not in part, but the whole, is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more; praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul! Refrain

And Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight, the clouds be rolled back as a scroll; the trumpet shall sound and the Lord shall descend; even so, it is well with my soul. Refrain

THE SECOND READING

Philippians 4:4-9

Prayer, Praise and Peace

THE OFFERING

My Master From a Garden Rose

Gordon Young

My Master in a garden lay, perfumed with spices rare, for tender hands had laid Him there to rest amid the roses. 'Twas on a cross they laid Him bare and pierced His hands with nails that we poor men might live again and be with Him in glory. Alleluia! My Master from a garden rose to go for us to heaven, and He will come and take us there to be with Him forever.

New Hymnals: After 35 years of faithful use, and after much research by the Worship and Music Committee, with approval of Session, our current hymnal will soon be replaced by the newly published Sing! Hymnal. In the coming weeks, you will have the opportunity to invest in this new hymnal project and dedicate them in honor of or in memory of loved ones. Watch for more details.

HAPPENING TODAY

The Chancel Choir invites you to their Spring Concert today, at 5:00 p.m., featuring festive music for Eastertide. You will enjoy hearing Gloria by Mark Hayes, an exciting three-movement concert piece featuring guest soloists Lydia Gray and Taylor Conley. They will also be featured in solos from Handel's immortal oratorio, Messiah. Invite your friends to this musical feast!

Prayer Room: Open now during church hours through Pentecost Sunday, May 24, the Prayer Room has been prepared as a place to encounter stillness and draw near to the Lord. Come inside, take time to reflect, and share in this sacred space with others who are seeking God. Follow the signs to the Prayer Room located on the Sanctuary level near Kerr Chapel.

Hospitality: Yes, You! As a member of First Church, you play a role in welcoming others. We are renewing our commitment to hospitality, helping people feel seen, known, and welcome. This Sunday's step is simple: notice and greet someone new—one small moment can make a lasting difference.
