Silence and Solitude

Fifth Sunday after Pentecost, JULY 13, 2025

The Words of Preparation

Solitude is being with God and God alone. Is there any space for that in your life? Why is it so important that you are with God and God alone on the mountain top? It's important because it's the place in which you can listen to the voice of the One who calls you the beloved. To pray is to listen to the One who calls you "my beloved daughter," "my beloved son," "my beloved child." To pray is to let that voice speak to the center of your being, to your guts, and let that voice resound in your whole being...Solitude is where spiritual ministry begins. That's where Jesus listened to God. That's where we listen to God.

THE INTROIT

Sometimes I Hear God's Music

Joseph Martin

Jeffrey Metcalf, soloist

Sometimes I hear God's music like none I've heard before, the music of the gentle brook, the ocean's mighty roar, the singing of the nightingale, the thunder's mighty noise, the silence of the starry night, and I must add my voice. His music fills my heart with peace; it floods my soul with joy. His music makes my spirit sing and every note employ. The music of God's love for me He sent His Son to sing. The music of eternity throughout the heavens rings. Sometimes I hear music like none I've heard before, the music of the gentle brook, the ocean's mighty roar. O the music of His sacrifice, of the death that Jesus chose. O the music of forever: Jesus Christ arose! All creation sing together of a love that faileth never, the music of forever. Praise God forever!

◆ THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 27:1-5, 13-14

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

When evildoers assail me to eat up my flesh, my adversaries and foes, it is they who stumble and fall.

Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war arise against me, yet I will be confident.

One thing have I asked of the Lord, that will I seek after:

That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the Lord and to inquire in His temple.

For He will hide me in His shelter in the day of trouble;

He will conceal me under the cover of his tent; He will lift me high upon a rock.

I believe that I shall look upon the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living!

Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the Lord!

THE FIRST READINGPsalm 62*THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, on You alone rests our salvation. You are our refuge and to You belongs steadfast love. We confess before You how often we have erred and strayed from Your ways. We have set our hearts on earthly riches and delights and put our trust in what our own hands have made. We have not loved You fully nor submitted to Your will. Forgive us, O Lord. Fix our eyes on the cross of Christ and so work in us by the power of Your Spirit that we might be fully Yours and live for Your glory alone. Hear us now, as we pray... (in silence)

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Friends, hear and believe the good news of the gospel that in Jesus Christ, there is indeed forgiveness for everyone who calls upon His name. Alleluia! Amen!

◆ THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH*The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE OFFERINGMake Me a Channel of Your Peace

arr. Mark Barnard

Make me a channel of your peace. Where there is hatred let me bring your love. Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord, and where there's doubt, true faith in you. Make me a channel of your peace. Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope. Where there is darkness, only light, and where there's sadness, ever joy. O Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love with all my soul. Make me a channel of your peace. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned. In giving of ourselves that we receive, and in dying that we're born to eternal life. Make me a channel of your peace, your peace.

Summer sermon series: Life in the Spirit

This summer, we're exploring what it means to truly live Life in the Spirit. We'll walk through the power, presence, and purpose of the Holy Spirit—and learn how everyday practices known as spiritual disciplines can help us grow as disciples of Jesus. Each week highlights a different practice: Study and Meditation, Prayer, Silence and Solitude, Fasting, Worship, Submission and Service, Confession, Simplicity, Stewardship, and Celebration. Join us on Sundays for teaching, practice the disciplines personally through weekly videos, gather on Wednesdays at noon in Kerr Chapel for Midweek Meetups, and connect in prayer on Zoom Mondays at 8 a.m. or Thursdays at 8 p.m. Watch for details in E-News and on our Facebook page.
