The Words of Preparation

If we consider the unblushing promises of reward and the staggering nature of the rewards promised to us in the Gospels, it would seem that our Lord finds our desires not too strong, but too weak.

The Call to Worship

Isaiah 40:27-31

Why should we care what happens here in this House of Prayer this morning? Why should we give our full attention?

Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; His understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless. Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted.

Do you really think the prophet Isaiah includes us in his promise that sinners, weak and weary as we are, can receive the Lord's power?

Indeed, for he says: those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

In Jesus this promise is fulfilled. His presence is assured; His all-sufficient grace is on offer to each and all. In Him alone we become:

Heirs of salvation, purchased by God, born of His Spirit, washed in His blood.

This is the great, good news that meets us here today, a blessed assurance!

The Duet

Blessed Assurance

arr. Ralph Manuel

The Rev. Julia Metcalf, and Jeffrey Metcalf

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine! O, what a foretaste of glory divine! Heir of salvation, purchase of God, born of His Spirit, washed in His blood. This is my story, this is my song, praising my Savior all the day long; this is my story, this is my song, praising my Savior all the day long. Perfect submission, perfect delight, visions of rapture now burst on my sight; angels descending bring from above echoes of mercy, whispers of love. Refrain.

Come, fount of every blessing! Tune our hearts to sing Your praise!
Alleluia! Amen!

- ◆ The Hymn 356 Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing NETTLETON
 (*Ebenezer: Stone of Help; cf. I Sam. 7:12)

- ◆ The Prayer of Adoration Elder Jacob Thompson

The Old Testament Reading Isaiah 40:6-11 (responsively)

A voice says, "Cry out!" And I said, "What shall I cry?"

All flesh is grass; their constancy is like the flower of the field.

The grass withers; the flower fades —when the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely the people are grass.

The grass withers; the flower fades —but the word of our God will stand forever.

Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good news; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good news!

Lift it up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!"

See, the Lord God comes with might, and His arm rules for Him;

His reward is with Him and His recompense before Him.

He will feed his flock like a shepherd;

He will gather the lambs in His arms and carry them in His bosom and gently lead the mother sheep.

The Prayer of Confession

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of Thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love Thee, and worthily magnify Thy holy Name, through Christ our Lord. Lord Jesus, in your mercy, hear our prayers... (in silence)

The Blessing of Forgiveness

Friends, embrace this good news with all of your hearts: in Jesus Christ there is forgiveness –for all who call upon Him!
Praise the Lord –for His mercy is forever! Hallelujah!

◆ The Response We Lift Our Hearts in Thanks LONDONDERRY AIR

The human heart yearns for a Guide to lead us home, ‘mid all the fears and turns that mark each day; and God himself has blessed us with His Holy Word, that draws us close and shares with us the Way! Inspired by God, the Bible leads to Jesus Christ, Who brings us home, by virtue of His grace; we lift our hearts in thanks for such a blessing; we lift our voice and sing with joy the good Lord’s praise!

Take us, dear Lord, and by your Spirit fashion us; retool our hearts, equip us by your grace –that we will live as those who give their very best and serve your will in every time and place! Inspire us, Lord, and bind our hearts to Christ alone, grant us resolve and courage by Your grace; we lift our hearts in thanks for such a blessing; we lift our voice and sing with joy the good Lord’s praise!

◆ Affirmation of Faith The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. AMEN.

The Joys and Concerns of the Church

The Offertory Sometimes I Hear God's Music Joseph Martin

Sometimes I hear God's music like none I've heard before, the music of the gentle brook, the ocean's mighty roar, the singing of the nightingale, the thunder's mighty noise, the silence of the starry night, and I must add my voice. His music fills my heart with peace; it floods my soul with joy. His music makes my spirit sing and every note employ. The music of God's love for me He sent His Son to sing. The music of eternity throughout the heavens rings. Sometimes I hear music like none I've heard before, the music of the gentle brook, the ocean's mighty roar. O the the music of His sacrifice, of the death that Jesus chose. O the music of forever: Jesus Christ arose! All creation sing together of a love that faileth never, the music of forever. Praise God forever!

The New Testament Reading Matthew 6:1-6

Beware of practicing your righteousness before other people in order to be seen by them, for then you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.

Thus, when you give to the needy, sound no trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be praised by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward.

But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

And when you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites. For they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, that they may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward.

But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

II Corinthians 5:6-10

So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil.
