Third Sunday of Lent

The Words of Preparation

To be loved but not known is comforting but superficial. To be known and not loved is our greatest fear. But to be fully known and truly loved is, well, a lot like being loved by God. It is what we need more than anything. It liberates us from pretense, humbles us out of our self-righteousness, and fortifies us for any difficulty life can throw at us.

The Introit

O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee

Dale Wood

Emily Willard, soloist

O Master, let me walk with thee in lowly paths of service free;
tell me thy secret; help me bear the strain of toil, the fret of care.
Help me the slow of heart to move by some clear winning word of love; teach me the wayward feet to stay, and guide them in the homeward way. Teach me thy patience; share with me, O share with me a closer, dearer company, in work that keeps faith sweet and strong, in trust that triumphs over wrong. In hope that sends a shining ray far down the future's broadening way, in peace that only thou canst give, with thee, O Master, let me live.

The Call to Worship (Hebrews 12)

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses,

Let us also lay aside every weight, and the sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us,

Let us look to Jesus,

The founder and perfecter of our faith,

For the joy that was set before him, he endured the cross,
despising the shame,

And is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

Therefore, let us stand in honor,

And let us worship our God and King!

The Prayer of Confession

Rev. Julia Metcalf

Most gracious and merciful Heavenly Father, we confess that we have sinned against you. We have forsaken you, the one who redeemed us by the blood of Jesus, and we have sought life apart from you. Lord, in your mercy, turn our hearts back to you. Give us the grace to thirst for you, the living water. Hear us now, as we pray...(in silence)

The Assurance of Pardon

Friends, hear and believe the good news of the gospel that in Jesus Christ, there is indeed forgiveness for everyone who calls upon his name!

Alleluia, Amen!

◆ The Response of Gratitude Victory in Jesus

I heard an old, old story, how a Savior came from glory, how He gave His life on Calvary to save a wretch like me; I heard about His groaning, of His precious blood's atoning, then I repented of my sins and won the victory.

O victory in Jesus, my Savior, forever. He sought me and bought me with His redeeming blood; He loved me ere I knew Him and all my love is due Him, He plunged me to victory, beneath the cleansing flood.

I heard about His healing, of His cleansing power revealing. How He made the lame to walk again and caused the blind to see; and then I cried, "Dear Jesus, come and heal my broken spirit," and somehow Jesus came and brought to me the victory. Refrain

I heard about a mansion He has built for me in glory. And I heard about the streets of gold beyond the crystal sea; about the angels singing, and the old redemption story, and some sweet day I'll sing up there the song of victory. Refrain

◆ Affirmation of Faith The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. AMEN.
