Transfiguration of the Lord

Sanctuary, 11:00 a.m.

The Words of Preparation

A Christian is a strange person. He is both dead and alive, he is miserable and glorious. He consists of contraries. He is dead in regard of corruption and miseries, and such like, but he is alive in regard of his better part, and he grows two ways at once . He grows downwards and upwards at the same time; for as he dies in sin and misery, and natural death approaching, so he lives the life of grace, and grows more and more till he end in glory.

Richard Sibbs, 1639

The Prelude If With All Your Hearts, from Elijah

Felix Mendelssohn

Brad Morgan, soloist

Ye people, rend your hearts, and not your garments for your transgressions: Even as Elijah hath sealed the heavens through the Word of God. I therefore say to you, forsake your idols, return to God; for He is slow to anger, and merciful, and kind, and gracious, and repenteth Him of the evil. "If with all your hearts ye truly seek me, ye shall ever surely find me." Thus saith our God. Oh! that I knew where I might find Him, that I might even come before His presence!

The Call to Worship (from Psalm 100)

Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth.

Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs.

Know that the LORD is God. It is he who made us and we are his;

we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name.

For the LORD is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations.

- ◆ The Prayer of Adoration Rev. Julia Metcalf

The First Reading 2 Peter 1:16-21

The Prayer of Confession

God, forgive our doubting, questioning hearts. Like the scribes who witnessed Jesus' miracles of healing and heard his proclamation, yet spurned belief, we too have seen wonders, yet have hardened our hearts. We confess the many times that our pessimism has caused others to doubt themselves and your Spirit, the times that our criticism has wounded others, the times that our dejection has dampened the enthusiasm of those inspired by your Word and work. O God, forgive us and in your mercy renew us, that with open hearts we may believe and never pose an obstacle to the faith of others...(in silence)

◆ The Response of Gratitude Here is Love William Rees

Here is love vast as the ocean, loving kindness as the flood:
when the Prince of life, our ransom, shed for us His precious blood. Who His love will not remember? Who can cease to sing His praise? He will never be forgotten throughout heaven's eternal days.

On the mount of crucifixion fountains opened deep and wide. Through the floodgates of God's mercy flowed a vast and gracious tide. Grace and love like mighty rivers poured incessant from above. Heaven's peace and perfect justice kissed a guilty world in love.

In your truth you do direct me by your Spirit through your Word; and your grace my need is meeting as I trust in you, my Lord. Of your fullness you are pouring your great love afresh on me, without measure, full and boundless, drawing out my heart to Thee.

◆ The Assurance of Pardon and Affirmation of Faith

(The Heidelberg Catechism Question 56)

Q. 56. What do you believe concerning "the forgiveness of sins"?

A. That, for the sake of Christ's reconciling work. God will no more remember my sins or the sinfulness with which I have to struggle all my life long; but that he graciously imparts to me the righteousness of Christ so that I may never come into condemnation.

The Blessing of the Young Disciples

Song of Preparation Your Labor is Not in Vain

(Congregation joins on second stanza)

Your labor is not in vain. Though the ground underneath you is cursed and stained, your planting and reaping are never the same. Your labor is not in vain.

Your labor is not unknown. Though the rocks they cry out and the sea it may groan; the place of your toil may not seem like a home, but your labor is not unknown.

I am with you, I am with you. I am with you, I am with you. For I have called you, called you by name; your labor is not in vain.

The vineyards you plant will bear fruit. The fields will sing out and rejoice with the truth, for all that is old will at last be made new. The vineyards you plant will bear fruit.

Refrain

The houses you labored to build will finally with laughter and joy be filled; The serpent that hurts and destroys will be killed and all that is broken be healed. Refrain 2x

The Second Reading Colossians 3:1-17

The Sermon A Happy, Holy Obscurity

...you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

Colossians 3:3

The Anthem You Chosen of God, Holy and Beloved

Philip M. Young

You chosen of God, holy and beloved, put on mercy and kindness, gentleness and patience. Let the peace of Christ rule your hearts, for to this peace He calls us together in one body. You chosen of God, holy and beloved, put on mercy and kindness, gentleness and patience, and above all these, put on love, which binds us all as one in perfect harmony. Let the Word of Christ dwell within you, as you witness to each other in all wisdom, and as you sing, as you sing psalms and hymns and holy songs. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do in the name of Jesus Christ.
