The Words of Preparation

Jesus also wants emphatically to address the death question, humanity's most haunting dread. Even the manna generation died—the people who came closest in world history, B.C. to having divine food. But Jesus' Bread is "coming down right now..." so that human beings may continually be feeding, right now and forever, on this manna that transcends generations and that gives itself on and on.

Dale Bruner, The Gospel of John: A Commentary

The Welcome

Rev. Dan Hutchinson

(Please sign, pass, and return the blue friendship register.)

The Introit

Holy Manna

George Atkin/William Moore

Gloria Women's Choir

Brethren, we have met to worship, and adore the Lord our God; will you pray with all your power, while we try to preach the word? All is vain, unless the spirit of the Holy One comes down; brethren, pray, and holy manna will be showered all around. Sisters, will you join and help us? Moses' sisters aided him; will you help the trembling mourners, who are struggling hard with sin? Tell them all about the Saviour, tell them that He will be found; sisters, pray, and holy manna will be showered all around.

◆ The Call to Worship

Shout for joy to God, all the earth; sing the glory of his name;
give to him glorious praise! Say to God,

"How awesome are your deeds! So great is your power that your enemies come cringing to you. All the earth worships you and sings praises to you; they sing praises to your name."

Come and see what God has done:

He is awesome in his deeds toward the children of man.

He turned the sea into dry land; they passed through the river on foot.

There did we rejoice in him, who rules by his might forever, whose eyes keep watch on the nations—let not the rebellious exalt themselves.

Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will tell what he has done for my soul.

I cried to him with my mouth, and high praise was on my tongue.

If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened.

But truly God has listened; he has attended to the voice of my prayer.

Blessed be God, because he has not rejected my prayer or removed his steadfast love from me!

Psalm 66:1-7, 16-20

Emma Myatt

The First Reading

John 6:41-51

The Prayer of Confession

Rev. James Estes

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we come before you this day carrying our sin and our shame. You alone know how often we have sinned in wandering from Your ways and in rejecting You, the source of all life. Forgive us for looking for life apart from You. Forgive us for when we take offense at your word. Forgive us for when we are slow to listen. Forgive us for when we fail to love You wholeheartedly and for when we fail to love our neighbor with Your love. For the sake of Christ we pray...(in silence)

The Assurance of Pardon

Friends, hear and believe the good news of the Gospel, that in Jesus Christ there is indeed forgiveness for everyone who calls upon his name!
Alleluia! Amen!

◆ The Passing of the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you! And also with you!

◆ The Response of Gratitude The Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise Him, all creatures here below; praise Him above, you heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. AMEN.

◆ The Affirmation of Faith Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. AMEN.

The Blessing of the Young Disciples

The Second Reading Exodus 16

The Sermon God's Provision Rev. Dan Hutchinson

And the Lord said to Moses, "I have heard the grumbling of the people of Israel. Say to them, 'At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. Then you shall know that I am the Lord your God.'" (Exodus 16:11-12)

The Offering Sheep May Safely Graze J. S. Bach

Sheep may safely graze and pasture in a watchful shepherd's sight. Those who rule with wisdom guiding, bring to hearts a peace abiding, bless a land with joy made bright. Like a shepherd God doth guide us into pastures calm and blest; safe we lie by peaceful waters, safe like sheep securely rest.

THE QUESTIONS TO THE OFFICERS

Do you trust in Jesus Christ your Savior, acknowledge him Lord of all and Head of the Church, and through him believe in one God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit?

Do you accept the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be, by the Holy Spirit, the unique and authoritative witness to Jesus Christ in the Church universal, and God's Word to you?

Do you sincerely receive and adopt the essential tenets of the Reformed faith as expressed in the confessions of our Church as authentic and reliable expositions of what scripture leads us to believe and do, and will you be instructed and led by those confessions as you lead the People of God?

Will you fulfill your ministry in obedience to Jesus Christ, under the authority of Scripture, and be continually guided by our confessions?

Will you be governed by our church's polity, and will you abide by its discipline? Will you be a friend among your colleagues in ministry, working with them, subject to the ordering of God's Word and Spirit?

Will you in your own life seek to follow the Lord Jesus Christ, love your neighbors, and work for the reconciliation of the world?

Do you promise to further peace, unity and purity of the church?

Will you pray for and seek to serve the people with energy, intelligence, imagination and love?

(Deacons), will you be a faithful deacon, teaching charity, urging concern, and directing the people's help to the friendless and those in need? In your ministry will you try to show the love and justice of Jesus Christ?

(Elders), will you be a faithful elder, watching over the people, providing for their worship, nurture and service? Will you share in government and discipline, serving in governing councils of the church, and in your ministry will you try to show the love and justice of Jesus Christ?

THE QUESTIONS TO THE CONGREGATION

Joel Donohue, CO-CLERK OF SESSION

1. Do we, the members of the church, accept them as officers chosen by God through the voice of this congregation to lead us in the way of Jesus Christ?
2. Do we agree to pray for them, encourage them, to respect their decisions and to follow as they guide us, serving Jesus Christ, who alone is Head of the Church?

The Duet

One Bread, One Body

John Foley, arr. Lloyd Larson

Jewel Pierson and Savannah Whalen-Harden, soloists

One bread, one body, one Lord of all, one cup of blessing which we bless. And we, though many, throughout the earth, we are one body in this one Lord. Gentile or Jew, servant or free, woman or man, no more. Refrain. Many the gifts, many the works, one in the Lord of all. Refrain. Grain for the fields, scattered and grown, gathered to one, for all. Refrain.

◆ The Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

◆ The Closing Hymn

Be Thou My Vision

Be Thou my Vision, O Lord of my heart; naught be all else to me, save that Thou art. Thou my best Thought, by day or by night, waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.

Be Thou my Wisdom, and Thou my true Word; I ever with Thee and Thou with me, Lord; Thou my great Father, I Thy true son; Thou in me dwelling, and I with Thee one.

Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise, Thou mine Inheritance, now and always: Thou and Thou only, first in my heart, High King of Heaven, my Treasure Thou art.

High King of Heaven, my victory won, may I reach Heaven's joys, O bright Heav'n's Sun! Heart of my own heart, whatever befall, still be my Vision, O Ruler of all.

◆ The Charge and Benediction

Jennifer Porter

The Office of Deacon

The ministry of Deacon as set forth in Scripture is one of compassion, witness and service, sharing in the redeeming love of Jesus Christ for the poor, the hungry, the sick, the lost, the friendless, the oppressed...or anyone in distress. (Presbyterian Book of Order)

What is the significance of this call for you?

It's an incredible honor and blessing that someone noticed I have a heart to serve. God is stretching me and challenging me to do things, in His name, that I never thought I would be called to do. Diane Austin

I was heavily involved in volunteer and church duties for years. I had taken time off from those duties in recent years to help with my new grandchildren and to assist and enjoy my elderly parents. My father passed away last May and the call to be a Deacon came shortly thereafter. In some way I felt like Dad prompted the call. I knew it was time to re-engage and I am honored to take up the call.

Lisa Berry

The significance of the call to become a Deacon is extremely significant. My desire to serve has been growing and was intensified on the FPC Ireland mission trip. To find out that I had been nominated shortly after returning home, was a confirmation to me that the Lord was indeed granting my desire to serve the local Body of Christ and those that He places in my path. Dave Davis

It is an honor to be trusted with the work of a Deacon. I have had a very blessed life and I am looking forward to serving others. Amy Fiegenger

I'm grateful for this opportunity to serve as a Deacon at First Church. This church community has meant so much to my family and being a deacon is a way for me to give back! David Grigg

It is important for me to help serve the church and listen to the needs of the congregation. Andrew Hand

I feel Honored to be called as an officer of the Church. It's a great opportunity to act as a servant of God for His people. Nelly Ndungu

Being called to serve as a deacon is very humbling for me and a role I take seriously. I am honored and excited to serve our church and community with the help and continual guidance of my Savior Jesus Christ. Jana Neal

It is a joy and honor to serve as a Deacon. I am honored to be called and I look forward to serving the Lord, His Church, and this local body of Christ alongside those I have come to know and love. Kate Swan

First Presbyterian Church Tulsa has always been a large part of my life. Growing up, I attended with my grandparents and immediate family. I observed my mother in leadership roles within the church and the pride she had to be called by God to serve. I feel honored and privileged to serve as an officer and to be a voice of leadership in the church. I hope that in this role I can connect with other members of our church who are physically here as well as those who attend church from a distance. Clare Williams

The Office of Elder

As there were in Old Testament times elders for the government of the people, so the New Testament church provided persons with particular gifts to share in discernment of God's Spirit and governance of God's people. Accordingly, congregations should elect persons of wisdom and maturity of faith, having demonstrated skills in leadership and being compassionate in spirit. Ruling elders are so named not because they "lord it over" the congregation (Matt. 20:25), but because they are chosen by the congregation to discern and measure its fidelity to the Word of God, and to strengthen and nurture its faith and life. What is the significance of this call for you?

First, I am so honored. I love our church and congregation and am so proud to be a part of it. This is a very exciting time at FPC and I am happy to be part of the leadership.
DD Blackman

It's an honor to serve in any capacity. This church has been an integral part of my family's life and I'm glad to be able to give back and be a part of session.
Jenni Dollahon

At this point in my life, I feel as if I have been called. I am going to do whatever it takes to not let Him down!
Jerry Hall

It is a humbling honor to be placed in this position of trust and leadership. I pray that this calling will be beneficial to the church and will serve God's purpose.
Kim Hall

This is an opportunity to learn and expand my faith. The church is an anchor in my family and I look forward to help guide the future of the church.

Bill Huffman

I'm thankful for this opportunity to serve and help further God's plan for this beautiful congregation.

Betty Marshall

I hope to be of service to this wonderful community of faith.

Paul McEntire

I am humbled to be chosen to provide spiritual guidance, support pastoral leadership and help make important decisions within the FPC congregation. With God's help! I hope to contribute to the spiritual health of a community I love.

Jan Miller

Humbled to have been called to serve. Pray that I will follow God's will in this role.
