

The Work of Christ... And of His Church

*Called to make fully-devoted followers of Jesus Christ: Inwardly Strong
and Outwardly Focused.*

The Words of Preparation

With Christ in faith a wholly new life begins. It is not a restored life, and it is not a rejuvenated life either. It is not even a life reborn out of its origin. The resurrection of Christ has no historical prototype. It is something completely new in history. It is the beginning of the new creation of everything.

The Introit

Light the Candle

Carl Schalk

Light the candle of hope today, the Giver of hope will come!
Welcome the hope we long and wait for, but only Christ can give.
Flicker and flame and glow with hope, light up the world around you.
Flicker and flame and glow with hope, light up the world around you.

The Lighting of the Advent Candle (1) Hope

Steve and Carol Caldwell

Advent reminds us of the coming of the eternal Son of God, long awaited, much prayed for, the Fount of every blessing. As He came so long ago to Bethlehem, so He comes yet again today, ready with a blessing for whomever will receive it! The central prayer of Advent can be put into a single word, maranatha!

“Come, Lord Jesus!”

Alleluia! Amen!

◆ The Hymn 2 Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus HYFRYDOL
Acolytes: Kamryn Chaney, James Doverspike, and Joy Ebil

◆ The Prayer of Adoration Dr. Al Baker

The First Reading Isaiah 40:1-5

The Response O Come, O Come, Emmanuel arr. Lloyd Larson
Emma Myatt and Hannah Johnson, soloists

O come, O come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel, that mourns in lonely exile here, until the Son of God appear. *Rejoice!
Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!* O come, desire of nations, bind all peoples in one heart and mind; bid envy, strife and quarrels cease, fill the whole world with heaven's peace.
Refrain.

The Prayer of Confession Rev. Julia Metcalf

Almighty God, we can feel that we are in exile, residents of a place that is so unlike the home you are preparing for us. And we have been here so long that we sometimes hardly seem strangers anymore—as if this will be our place forever, and that our true home is a fading memory or a childish dream. Forgive us our despair. In this foreign land we cry out, come, Emmanuel, come!
Come, remind us that where the King is, there is your kingdom;
and that by your spirit you are subversively showing your humble, gentle dominion over all things. And allow us, by the power at work within us, to know and make known that unknowable mystery by which you draw all things into your unchallenged rule;
even your self-emptying love. Amen.

The Good News

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king is coming to you; righteous and having salvation. Alleluia! Amen!

The Response

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

◆ The Affirmation of Faith (The Nicene Creed)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us and for our salvation He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the virgin Mary, and became human. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Sermon New Life: Real, Impossible, Contingent

The Offering Come, Thou Redeemer of the Earth David Willcocks

Come, thou Redeemer of the earth, and manifest thy virgin birth;
let every age adoring fall; such birth befits the God of all.
Begotten of no human will, but of the Spirit, thou art still the Word of God in flesh arrayed, the promised fruit to man displayed. From God the Father he proceeds, to God the Father back he speeds; his course he runs to death and hell, returning on God's throne to dwell. All laud, eternal Son, to thee whose advent sets thy people free, whom with the Father we adore, and Holy Ghost for evermore. Amen.

We welcome you on this first Sunday of Advent! Advent is a word that means “coming near”. During this season, we remember that Christ has come, that Christ comes to us today, and that Christ will come again. Whatever you bring with you here today, we pray that you will sense the incoming presence of Christ among us, the warmth of this community that He has called together, and the joy of serving in His name.

If you do not have a church home, we would love to welcome you! For information, contact Patricia Hall (918-301-1028 or phall@firstchurchtulsa.org).
