

Credible Witnesses on the Road to Pentecost

*Called to make fully-devoted followers of Jesus Christ:
Inwardly Strong,
Outwardly Focused.*

The Words of Preparation

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to His great mercy, He has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead —to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God’s power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed at the last time.

I Peter 1:3

The Welcome

The Introit

Thine Is the Glory

arr. Margaret Tucker

Thine is the glory, risen, conquering Son; endless is the victory thou o’er death has won!

Angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away, kept the folded grave clothes where thy body lay. Refrain.

Lo! Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb; lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom; let the church with gladness hymns of triumph sing, for our Christ now liveth; death has lost its sting. Refrain.

Congregation stands and joins in singing

No more we doubt thee, glorious Prince of life! Life is naught without thee; aid us in our strife; make us more than conquerors, through thy deathless love; bring us safe through Jordan to thy home above. Refrain.

◆ The Call to Worship

More than conquerors? Is that what you believe? What about job loss, and promises broken, and the death of someone you love? And how can you sing, “No more we doubt Thee, glorious Prince of Life?” What about injustices and the slandering of reputation and the brokenness all around us?

In all these things we are more than conquerors —through Him who loved us. For we are convinced that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus, our Lord!

Romans 8

Lift up your heads, O gates!

And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in.

Psalm 24

Lift your hearts and your voices —to the King of Glory!

Alleluia! Amen!

◆ The Hymn

To God Be the Glory

TO GOD BE THE GLORY

Acolytes: Judah DeSpain, Kamryn Chaney and Goodness Usigbe

To God be the glory, great things He has done! So loved He the world that He gave us His Son, Who yielded His life an atonement for sin, and opened the life-gate that all may go in.

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, let the earth hear His voice!

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, let the people rejoice! O come to the Father through Jesus the Son, and give Him the glory: great things He has done!

O perfect redemption, the purchase of blood, to every believer the promise of God. The vilest offender who truly believes that moment from Jesus a pardon receives. Refrain.

Great things He has taught us, great things He has done, and great our rejoicing through Jesus the Son; but purer, and higher, and greater will be our wonder, our transport, when Jesus we see. Refrain.

◆ The Prayer of Adoration

The Old Testament Reading Psalm 80:19; Job 19:25-27

The Anthem

Jesus, My Lord

Eugene Butler

Gloria Choir; Gretchen Bashforth, director

Jesus, my Lord, up from the dead, come walk by my side and break me some bread; quicken the life of crying and dread. Jesus, my Lord, my Lord, my Lord.

Jesus, my Lord, out on the road, come walk by my side and lighten the load, by day and by night, on bed and the road. Refrain.

Jesus, my Lord, high on the hill, come walk by my side to tell me your will; silence the war in quiet and still. Refrain.

Jesus, my Lord, down on the earth, come walk by my side from dying to birth; hasten the word in all of the earth. Refrain.

The Prayer of Confession

Rev. Julia Metcalf

Lord Jesus Christ, you have defeated sin, death and the devil. Your presence restores us to Life and redeems our sinful ways. You promise that one day all tears will be wiped away. Forgive us for yawning at this news. Forgive us, good Lord, for our complicity in sin. Awaken us to your living presence, cause our hearts to be reborn to a living hope, by the power of the Holy Spirit —that we may take joy in you and collaborate in your purposes. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayers...(in silence)

The Invitation to embrace God's Gift

Friends, embrace this good news with all of your hearts: in Jesus Christ there is forgiveness —for all who call upon Him!
Alleluia! Amen!

◆ The Response 430 Come Sing, O Church, in Joy!

DARWALL'S 148TH

◆ The Eastertide Affirmation

This is the good news which we have received, in which we stand, and by which we are saved –if we hold it fast: that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures, that He was buried, that He was raised on the third day, and that He appeared first to the women, then to Peter and to the Twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses. We believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of the living God; He is the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End; He is our Lord and our God. Amen.

The New Testament Reading Luke 24:1-12

At the crack of dawn on Sunday, the women came to the tomb carrying the burial spices they had prepared. They found the entrance stone rolled back from the tomb, so they walked in. But once inside, they couldn't find the body of the Master Jesus.

They were puzzled, wondering what to make of this. Then, out of nowhere it seemed, two men, light cascading over them, stood there. The women were awestruck and bowed down in worship.

The men said, “Why are you looking for the Living One in a cemetery? He is not here, but raised up. Remember how he told you when you were still back in Galilee that he had to be handed over to sinners, be killed on a cross, and in three days rise up?”

Then they remembered Jesus’ words.

They left the tomb and broke the news of all this to the Eleven and the rest. Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them kept telling these things to the apostles, but the apostles didn’t believe a word of it, thought they were making it all up.

But Peter jumped to his feet and ran to the tomb. He stooped to look in and saw a few grave clothes, that’s all. He walked away puzzled, shaking his head.

The Sermon Credible Witnesses? Peter’s Story

...the women’s story seemed to be an idle tale –and the apostles did not believe it. Luke 24:11

The Offertory God is Our Refuge Allen Pote

God is our refuge and strength; a present help in time of trouble. Though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea, though the waters roar and foam, we will not fear. Come and behold the work of the Lord, the awesome acts of God. He is in the midst of his people, in all the earth. He is the Word, we are his hands, He will lead us. He is the air, we are his song, we will celebrate his presence all the day long. Refrain. He is the rain, we are the stones, He will cleanse us. He is the air, we are his song, we will celebrate his presence all the day long. Refrain. Psalm 46

SEEKING GOD'S SERVANT LEADERS

*After the pattern of the One "who came not to be served, but to serve."
-Matthew 20:28*

One of the most important privileges we share is to encourage gifted and committed men and women to serve the Lord in leadership positions. Thank you for taking time to offer suggestions to the FPC Nominating Committee.

ELDERS (THE SESSION):

Responsible for the governance of the church.
They provide leadership in all areas, including: Worship, Administration, Programs, Mission, and Ministry.

DEACONS:

The "heartbeat" of the church, ordained for the purpose of "ministering to those in special need."

TRUSTEES:

Stewards of the First Presbyterian Church Foundation.

THE OFFICER NOMINATING COMMITTEE:

Identifies leaders God has called and prepared to serve our congregation.
