The Story of Jesus

We Prepare

I love the selection of God's tender care in Isaiah 42:3: "A bruised reed He will not break, and a faintly burning wick He will not quench." God's beautiful mercy breathes life into your heart and vitality into your soul. He is slow to anger and abounding in mercy. Yes, life can be hard, people can be very cruel, and there are times when you are left alone, but you are never completely abandoned because your Father is with you in tender, restorative love.
